

January, 2011 Fourth Grade Lessons with an educator from the Audubon Naturalist Society

Students learned about watersheds and pollutants using a model of a landscape. They observed what happens when it rains in a landscape with and without riparian buffers.

January, 2011 Fourth Grade Lessons with an educator from the Audubon Naturalist Society

Students learned that we all live downstream through an exercise that demonstrated the accumulation of pollutants.

