

Habitat Restoration: In an effort to educate our students and the community, plans are in the works to post signage in our no-mow zones. The areas surrounding our trees planted in October, 2010 will receive signs explaining the purpose of reduced and non-mowing. Plans include having students paint signs on re-purposed wood, and each sign will include a fact based on the information included in the sign below.

