

School-wide effort: Recycle and repurpose school supplies at the end of the school year

Student Government Officers and Representatives organized and collected materials from every homeroom during the last few days of school. (June, 2011)

