

The Cedar Grove Staff spent an afternoon during the pre-service days in Aug. 2010 'grading' our schoolyard. The purpose was to raise awareness and open a dialogue for the beginnings of the cultural changes needed to ensure that our students will become environmentally literate.

