

Water Pollution Prevention Through Content Connection: March, 2012.

First Graders collect litter from the schoolyard preventing it from traveling downhill to a stream on adjacent property. This activity was part of the first grade science and social studies curriculum.

First graders wrote journal entries about the clean-up activity.