

Watt's Up?

A classroom energy audit was conducted using tools such as watt meters, light meters, and digital thermometers. We were surprised at how much energy was being wasted in our classroom. GreenKids helped us identify ways to increase energy efficiency both at school and at home.

