

HUMANITIES AND PUBLIC SERVICES CAPSTONE

BLAKE'S SIGNATURE PROGRAM

Mission: The Humanities and Public Service Capstone Program prepares students to be reflective, critical thinkers. Students in this capstone use their academic and practical learning to gain information and experiences essential in fostering a more global perspective of political systems, history, economic issues, language, literature, and other aspects of culture that enable them to work with and for the community.

What is your passion?

politician	college professor	lawyer	job coach
jury consultant	teacher	day care provider	anthropologist psychologist	instructional specialist	social service worker	school administrator counselor	geographer	archivist	corporate trainer
teaching paraprofessional	archaeologist	speech writer	security officer
librarian	law enforcement officer	mediator	film critic
economist	counselor	community organizer	travel agent
demographer	paralegal	foreign service officer	market researcher
historian	linguist	ambassador	program administrator
museum curator	author	interpreter	judge
urban planner	FBI/CIA/NSA	admissions counselor	federal agency admin
social media manager	corporate trainer	public relations	law clerk

We Have a CAP for That!

The following chart explains the process for identifying and completing a Capstone Certification in the Humanities and Public Services Capstone Program. Use this guide as an example to complete the form on page XX.

Humanities and Public Service Capstone Process			Sample
1. Identify your passion:			politics
2. Create your pathway: Choose three classes from any of the lists of humanities courses below that relate to your passion and future career goals. Some capstones may have specific course sequences. Courses from other capstone can be used as well. Your Capstone teacher can assist you with this process.
Early Childhood and Adolescent Development Child and Adolescent Development w/Lab 1 Child and Adolescent Development w/Lab 2 Child and Adolescent Development 3 Internship Child and Adolescent Development  World Languages French Levels III - VI AP French Language Spanish Levels III - VI AP Spanish Literature AP Spanish Language American Sign-Language 1&2	English Creative Writing Advanced Creative Writing Graphic Novels Introduction to Film Study Journalism 1 Journalism 2 Speech and Debate Mythology Yearbook Yearbook 2	Social Sciences AP Comparative Government and Politics AP Human Geography AP Macroeconomics A (Semester 1) AP Microeconomics B (Semester 2) AP Psychology AP US History (10-12 th ) AP World History African American History Ancient/Medieval History Comparative Religions International Human Rights Latin American History Law I and Law II Psychology	a. AP Comparative Government
			b. Law I and II
			c. Speech and Debate &amp; African American History
			Alt: AP Psychology
			International Night
3. Choose a Humanities Signature Capstone Class: AP Psychology      Comparative Religions      Creative Writing Speech and Debate      Mythology AP Human Geography      AP US History      Latin American History			-----OR-----
---- OR ---- Identify an independent Capstone experience and a Blake staff member who will mentor you. Complete a Capstone experience such as, but not limited to:			Public policy change project
Capstone Research Project Historiography National History Day Psychology Experiment	Teaching Internship EduCorps International Night Writing Mock Trial	Comparative Religion Cultural Exchange Project Newspaper Internship Literary Magazine Independent Study

BLAKE CAPSTONE PLANNING CHART

Identify your chosen Capstone:
1. Identify your passion:
2. Construct your pathway: Choose three courses from your chosen Capstone. Be sure to follow the guidelines for choosing your courses. Some Capstones may have specific course sequences. Your Capstone teacher can assist you with this process.
	+
	+
	Alternate
3. Choose a Capstone Class:
OR Identify an independent Capstone experience and a Blake staff member who will mentor you and complete a Capstone experience.	or = 