Directions for Entering Noodletools to Your PowerPoint

1. From the project list, click on the list you will be using for your PowerPoint.

The screenshot shows the NoodleTools interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Projects', 'Dashboard', 'Bibliography', 'Notecards', and 'Paper'. Below this is the 'My Projects' section, which contains a table of projects. An arrow points to the 'Cocaine' project in the table. Below the table are action buttons: Copy, Merge, Delete, Archive, and Unarchive. There is also a 'Recover a deleted project: Undelete' link.

Description	Style	Level	Entries	Notes	Created (EST)	Modified (EST)	Shared?	Collaborating?
PBIS	MLA	Starter	4	0	11/30/08 09:16 PM	10/12/12 10:26 AM
Cocaine	MLA	Starter	1	0	09/27/12 01:19 PM	09/27/12 01:21 PM
Erik Erikson	MLA	Adv	3	0	10/29/08 10:04 AM	05/01/09 09:15 AM

2. Once you have opened the list, click on "Works Cited"

The screenshot shows the NoodleTools 'Dashboard' for the 'PBIS' project. The dashboard includes sections for 'Project', 'Research Question', 'Thesis Statement', 'History', 'Sharing', and 'Student Collaboration'. Below the dashboard is the 'Components' section, which contains a 'Works Cited' component with 4 entries and a 'Notecards & Outline' component with 0 notecards. An arrow points to the 'Works Cited' component. To the right of the components is a 'To Do List' section with columns for 'To Do Items', 'Due Date', and 'Completed'.

3. Click on "Print and Export"

The screenshot shows the 'MLA Works Cited' interface. At the top, there is a 'Cite a:' dropdown menu with '<Select a citation type>' selected, and a green 'Create Citation' button. Below this is a row of action buttons: 'Print/Export' (with a dropdown arrow), 'Share', 'Email', 'Analysis', 'Advanced Mode', and a trash icon. Underneath these buttons is a 'Notecard display' section with three options: 'Show/hide all', 'Show/hide thought cards (notecards not linked to a citation)', and 'Show only notecards that have comments'. The main content is a table with three columns: 'Media Type', 'Citation', and 'Description'. The table contains four entries, each for a 'Web Site' with a 'View live Web page' link. The citations include titles like 'Classroom Modifications', 'Classroom Strategies', and 'Help Guide' with their respective URLs and dates.

4. Click open the document

The screenshot shows the NoodleTools interface. At the top, there are navigation tabs: 'Projects', 'Dashboard', 'Bibliography', 'Notecards', and 'Paper'. Below these is a breadcrumb trail: 'Bibliography > Print > Export as RTF / Open in Word'. The user is logged in as 'giuffrea'. A 'Windows Internet Explorer' dialog box is open in the foreground, asking 'What do you want to do with axyn8375343tce6.rtf?'. The dialog provides file details: 'Size: 3.55 KB', 'Type: Microsoft Word 97 - 2003', and 'From: noodletools.com'. It offers three options: 'Open' (with a note 'The file won't be saved automatically.'), 'Save', and 'Save as'. A 'Cancel' button is at the bottom right. An arrow points from the 'Open' option in the dialog box to the 'Open in Word' link in the breadcrumb trail.

5. The word document will appear on your screen. Copy and Paste the information to the LAST slide on your PowerPoint.
